HEAR THEIR STORIES

Irene Miller, Keynote Speaker, Holocaust Survivor

Irene Miller, a Holocaust survivor, followed a path not traveled by the majority of those who survived the Holocaust. Irene's book, "Into No Man's Land: A Historical Memoir", is a chronicle of that survival journey. She and her family were part of 300,000 Polish Jews who escaped across the Nazi-Soviet frontier, encountering harrowing experiences in their quest for survival. As she will share, we do not know what strength we have until we are tested. You will find her story unique and riveting. The PBS documentary, "Irene; Child of the Holocaust", premiered December, 2016. Irene is a retired health care executive, teacher, author and speaker. Her memoir and talks serve her mission to promote tolerance and diversity. She is a positive, energetic woman with a joy of living and love to share.

Lisa, Livingston County Habitat for Humanity Partner Family

Lisa has had to face many obstacles throughout her life. At one point, Lisa lost her job, vehicle and home. After working hard to get back on her feet, she now lives in a small apartment and works multiple jobs to make ends meet. Lisa has a giving and compassionate heart. As a testament to her compassion, Lisa has helped others despite her hardships. She is excited to have a safe and affordable place to call home. Lisa is ready for this next step in her life as a Habitat for Humanity partner family.

A complimentary lunch will be provided by Consumers Energy. This FREE Lunch includes: a turkey, ham or vegan croissant, pasta and fruit salad, chips, brownie, condiments and beverage.

Guests will be asked to consider making a donation to Livingston County Habitat for Humanity, an organization that helps families build a strong and solid foundation for their families' futures.
