FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 15, 2019

Livingston County Prosecutor William Vaillencourt announced today that his office has filed charges arising out of the crash of a charter bus returning from a Hartland school field trip on April 27, 2019 on I-96 at M-59 in Howell Township. A twenty-seven-year-old Taylor woman was charged with three counts of Moving Violation Causing Serious Injury, misdemeanors punishable by up to 93 days in jail.

The case was investigated by the Livingston County Sheriff's Department.

The defendant will be arraigned on a date to be scheduled by the 53rd District Court.

The charges are merely accusations and the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
