

MCC Senior Gold Card Scholarships

Age has its benefits – the MCC Gold Card is one of them

The MCC Gold Card is a great opportunity to learn a new skill or just explore your interests. Gold Card Scholarships are for people age 60 or older that live inside the College district. They cover the cost of tuition for regular classes, and you are only responsible for fees, textbooks and any other necessary items for each course.

Gold Card students must meet the admission requirements of the college and any course prerequisites. And of course, registration for each class is on a space available basis.

Apply for a Gold Card by completing the application for admissions found at <https://www.mcc.edu/admissions/gold-card.shtml> and return it to the Admissions Office in the Prah! College Center on the main campus in Flint, or through a Branch Center in Lapeer, Clio or Fenton. Additionally, students can email the form to admissions@mcc.edu.

You can also use the Gold Card for Lifelong Learning courses! The Gold Card offers a 50% course cost discount for many Lifelong Learning classes. Enrollment is also on a space available basis. Online classes and some certificate programs are not covered. Please contact Lifelong Learning at 810-762-0961 for more information.
