

You are invited to a workshop on questions facing

PUTNAM TOWNSHIP'S AGRICULTURAL COMMUNITY

All are welcome to join an informational evening about the Agricultural Community in Putnam Township.

Wednesday, April 12 at 7 p.m. at the Putnam Township Hall***

We'll cover these questions (and more):

- What is the Right to Farm Act and GAMMPS?
- When do building codes apply to Agricultural (AG) buildings?
- When do local ordinances apply to AG operations?
- When is Agritourism protected by the Right to Farm Act?
- How can the Township better serve our AG Community?

Our Q & A panel of experts and stakeholders include:

- Ryan Coffey-Hoag, MSU Educator, MSU Extension
- Jim Rowell, Building Official, Livingston County Building Department
- John Enos, Partner, Carlisle Wortman Associates (Township Planners)
- Sarah Gabis, Attorney, Foster Swift Collins & Smith PC
- Dennis Brennan, Supervisor, Putnam Township
- Tom Lewis, Zoning Administrator, Putnam Township
- Putnam Township's Planning Commission, Zoning Board of Appeals and Township Board of Trustees

Contact Dennis Brennan, Township Supervisor, with questions at (734) 878-3131 or supervisor@putnamtwp.us.
