

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 2, 2023

Cortnie Parish, Co-Founder of VETLIFE
Email: cortnie@vetlifetoday.org

MICHIGAN VETERANS IN NEED OF A HOLIDAY MEAL CAN REGISTER TO RECEIVE A FREE THANKSGIVING TURKEY BASKET.

Howell, Michigan – VETLIFE, a nonprofit organization which focuses on connecting veterans to their benefits, is hosting Harvest for Heroes on Friday, November 17th in Howell. VETLIFE plans to giveaway 200 turkey baskets to veteran families. Each basket will feature a frozen turkey, dessert, and sides such as potatoes, gravy, stuffing, vegetables, rolls, and more. Registration is required by veterans to receive a complimentary basket. To register for VETLIFE’s Harvest for Heroes visit: harvestforheroes2023.eventbrite.com

Registered veteran families can pick up their Thanksgiving basket on Friday, November 17th from 9 – 11 AM at the Livingston County Veteran Services office located at 1420 Lawson Drive Howell, MI 48843. Veterans are asked to pull up on the side of the building and show their registration ticket or tell them their name and a representative will load the basket into their vehicle.

“Harvest for Heroes provides relief for veteran families on a tight budget and allows them to enjoy the holiday season with their family,” states Cortnie Parish, co-founder of VETLIFE. “For many people Thanksgiving is filled with over the top and indulgent dinners yet many veteran families face food insecurities, states Parish. If you are fortunate enough to have a full pantry and pocketbook VETLIFE urges you to consider donating to support veteran families in need this holiday season. To make a tax-deductible donation to support Harvest for Heroes and other veteran programs visit: www.vetlifetoday.org/donate VETLIFE’s Mission: To provide veterans with sustainable solutions while promoting a safer, healthier, and prosperous civilian lifestyle.

Follow VETLIFE on Facebook and Instagram: @vetlifetoday