

FINDING EDITH

SURVIVING THE HOLOCAUST IN PLAIN SIGHT

TUESDAY, APRIL 1 • 1-2:30PM

Emily Cord Duthinh tells how her mother survived the holocaust by hiding in French boarding schools and other institutions with false identity papers. After spending years running and in hiding, Edith Cord was smuggled into Switzerland. After the war, she was able to finish her education and eventually immigrated to the US.

Edith Cord wrote an autobiography entitled Finding Edith: Surviving the Holocaust in Plain Sight, which will be available for purchase after the program.
