

Beaudin told WHMI:

“I was not the Franklins agent. I’ve never met, spoke to, or had any communication with them ever. I never received an offer from the Franklins via their agent. I represented the sellers — they were presented any offers received. I’m a realtor, we live by the code of ethics. Discrimination has no place in real estate, especially here in Livingston County”.