

"Mr. Nakagiri is an administrator of a Facebook page that has reposted propaganda from a known white supremacist - a man who has written a whole book deriding our democratic systems, and who openly advocates for racial separation and ethno-nationalist policies, among other atrocious views -- someone who associates himself with neo-nazi Richard Spencer. Furthermore, according to its website, Mr. Nakagiri is treasurer of the group RetakeOurGov, which identifies itself as the financier of Livingston For Trump, which authored the post. If Mr. Nakagiri disagrees with those points of view, he should have removed the post as soon as a user pointed it out last week. Yet the post is still up.

If I incorrectly involved Ann's campaign with my remarks, it was based on misinformation I received prior to this occurrence and for that I apologize and I will amend my post. But this isn't about me -- I'm not running against Mr. Nakagiri, and Ms. Bollin isn't in my district. I raised this issue on my own because I think voters should know that Mr. Nakagiri has a leadership role in a group that is comfortable promoting and spreading these types of harmful messages when I think the nation as a whole finds them abhorrent, and has actively demonstrated that with their massive opposition to the separation of immigrant families."
