Tickets on sale now—Cromaine Library and the Hartland Messiah Chorus Announce Fundraiser to complete final phase of restoration for the Kilgen Pipe Organ at the Historic Hartland Music Hall

Hartland, MI - March 19, 2025- Cromaine District Library and the Hartland Messiah Chorus are thrilled to announce an upcoming fundraising event aimed at preserving and maintaining the iconic Kilgen Pipe Organ located at the Historic Hartland Music Hall. The event, scheduled for May 2, 2025 at 7:00 pm, promises an enchanting evening in support of the final phase of the ongoing restoration of this cultural treasure. Organists Dr. Rose Stevens and Freeman Tucker will share all-time classics from gaming, movies, and music in a concert that is sure to delight the whole family!

The Kilgen Pipe Organ, a magnificent instrument with a rich history dating back to the early 20th century, is an integral part of the Hartland Music Hall. Its majestic tones have provided a unique and timeless musical experience for generations. Like any historic artifact, the organ requires meticulous care and maintenance to ensure its continued presence in our community. Generous community grants and fundraising have combined over the past two years to complete the first two phases of required repair, this fundraiser aims to raise the remaining $8,000 necessary to bring the instrument to mint condition.

VIP Reserved Seating Tickets are $50, General Admission Tickets are $25, and are on sale now at this link. (<https://givebutter.com/4fRIJi>)

The Kilgen Pipe Organ, a cornerstone of the Hartland Music Hall, stands as a testament to the rich cultural heritage of our community. Cromaine Library joins with the Messiah Chorus in recognizing the importance of preserving this historical gem, ensuring that future generations can continue to enjoy its unique and mesmerizing music.
